 following Message viz
 To the Lower House of Assembly, Gentlemen,

On my undertaking the building of the Magazine for Arms the Country allowed me five hundred pounds Sterling and in the next Assembly following fifty pounds more of which I have made out an account at the bottom of this; but as I find there is only an Ordinance of Assembly and no direction to any particular persons to pay the five hundred and fifty pounds Sterl. above mentioned, Col. Young who is your Treasurer did not think it advisable to pay me the balance you will find due to me.

I therefore desire you will please to direct the Treasurer to pay me that balance or by the hands of any other person you shall direct.
 I am Sir, your Obedient Servant
