

By the Lower House of Assembly May 4th 1718.
 (May I please Your Honours)

By Mr. Cooke's Gen<sup>l</sup> Computation the finishing the Magazine Workmanlike as it ought to be, would amount to two or three hundred pounds more than he was to have by the first bargain, wherefore we considered if the bargain was somewhat hard on his side and desired Your Concurrence in allowing him one hundred pounds Sterling more to make him a Reconferee.

Mr. Cooke has not made any particular proposition to us of what work remains to be finished - Therefore we refer it wholly to his freey to determine and to order the paym<sup>t</sup> of the money on the finishing the work -

Signed for order, (Mr. Jenifer Clk. Lo. House - and sent to the Upper House by Capt. Fusby and Mr. Young.

The Petition of the Vestry of St. Ann's Parish is further referred till to-morrow - The House adjourns till Monday Next Eight a Clock.

Mr. Thomas Macnemaia having been sent for by his Excellency to appear before this house to know whether he has any thing to offer on a Letter sent him by the Lords Guilford and Baltimore enclosed by their Lordships to his Excellency and being asked by his Excellency whether he had any thing to offer him by the Commands of their Lordships, said he had not, but that their Lordships lett him know that his Excellency was to make proposals to him, and being further asked whether he had made application to his Excellency since he received that letter answered he had not which his Excellency says he takes to be a further confirmation of his obstinacy and contumaciousness he then making no offer of submission, on the order of his Suspension in the Chancery Court notwithstanding their Lordships have approved that Suspension by their Letter to him - On reflection whereof this House take into Consideration Mr<sup>l</sup> -
