Col<sup>o</sup>. Hollands and three more from the Upper house delivered Mr. Speakers his Ex<sup>ty</sup> answer to the address of yesterday which was read and Ordered to be entered as follows, viz<sup>e</sup>

May 20th 1719.

Mr. Speaker, I Desire you will acquaint the House, that the Honble mention of the Lord Proprietor in your address of Yesterday, shall be laid before his Lordship by the first opportunity, which I doubt not will be very acceptable to him.

The steady resolution of your House to maintain the Protestant Religion and laws of this Government is highly commendable in them.

The favourable sense your House has of my Administration
