

great use to the Rights Determination of such suits also the change of Annual Commissions, and Annual Elections without these is numerous to Particularize but yet to Obviate to escape your Notice

And therefore rather than to recommend to your Excellency the preparing a Supplemental Bill to the Act now in force wherein provisions may be made to oblige the Commissioners that qualify themselves to attend their duty to Relieve all those that now apply for relief by allowing appeals to a proper Court to be erected in Each shire as well as to all Cities, from any Judgments that shall hereafter be given And to Explain all doubtful Expressions in the Law now in force And add all other amendments of such obvious Defects as have appeared and putting the same Law in practice Signed for order John Beale (Speaker of the House of Assembly) from the Upper House delivers Mr Speaker the bill for the relief of Thomas Plummer thus Endorsed Viz (By) the Upper House of Assembly Oct 20 1720. This bill being read with the amendments into Paper Signed for order John Beale (Speaker of the House) when upon the same is read again and passed for Engrossing which was so Endorsed. The motion being made and the question being put, whether a repealing Bill shall be brought in to Repeal the said Law (carried in the negative). Whereupon the question being put whether three persons shall be appointed in Each County to act as Commissioners on appeals or not, (carried in the Affirmative) And resolved that they be appointed by the Governour for the term being and that the Commissioners appointed on appeals be Judges also such petitions as lay now before the House And ordered that the following message be prepared (Viz) (By) the Lower House of Assembly, October 20 1720. May it please your Hon^{rs}

We have considered your message of this day by John Hall Esq^r and two others of your Hon^{ble} members, and have altered our former Resolutions on the act for ascertaining the bounds of shires, and agree that a supplementary Bill be brought into that act, wherein provisions may be made to oblige the Commissioners that qualify themselves, to attend their Duty. That three persons in Each County be appointed by the Governour, who are to hear and Determine appeals from the Commissioners as the first Vice and to Determine all such petitions as now lay before this House (explaining of any) the decrees of the said Commissioners with which if you have agreed the bill may be printed

Signed for order Mr Jenifer (Speaker of the Lower House, which being sent to the Upper House, by Mr Benson and five others they returned And say they have delivered it
