

and advantage of his Lordships Province is most conspicuous to all well wishers thereof by your recommending in a more particular manner to us the taking into consideration how to relieve our selves from the most miserable and deplorable state we are reduced to by the sudden fall of the Staple of our Country and by giving us great an Example to follow as that of the Legislature of Great Britain whose measures in this particular we shall most strictly follow by unanimously, heartily and sincerely setting our selves about so great a work which we most earnestly wish may end in the united happiness of the Lord Proprietor and his people.

And we beg leave to assure your Hon<sup>rs</sup> its with equal pleasure we reflect that the little heats and divisions created through Misapprehensions amongst our selves are happily terminated and that it in all probability very much contributed to the irreparable interest of our Lord Proprietor and his people and as by the marks your Hon<sup>rs</sup> hath already given us we are sufficiently convinced of your intentions for the well fare of this Province so from your wisdom, goodness and Justice we are most firmly persuaded of the Continuan<sup>ce</sup> thereof and shall Endeavour to outvie each other in our Zeal by most readily coming into your Hon<sup>rs</sup> Measures.
