By the Lower House of Assembly Oct. 19th 1722
 May it please your Honours the reason of the Exception in the within Bill is because we Esteem it unparliamentary and not fit to be drawn into practice that while any contest is depending an Act should be made to alter the law on which the contending parties grounded their suits which indeed would be to make the Act have a Retrospect and besides to leave out that Exception would be to grant the petitioners more than they pray for
