

Statute Act of Assembly being subject to the like Rules of Common Law a Equitable Constitution as are used by the Judges in Constructing Statutes in England which happily have been by his Majesty and his Royall Ancestors and also by his Lordship and his Noble Ancestors or some of them, been hitherto approved by having the Concurrence of Judges to include Questions of the nature of the several Judicial Magistrates, unless those words have at any time been casually or Carelessly omitted by the Officers in this Province that drew such Concurrence that therefore whoever shall advise his Lordship or his Successors to Govern by any other Rules of Government or Civil Councilor. He wishes to his Lordship and to his present happy Constitution and intend thereby to Infringe our English Liberties and to frustrate in great measure the Intent of the Crown by the Original Grant of this Province to the Lord Proprietor. Resolved further that the Aforegoing Resolutions of the House are not Accented by any Offe ntion that the Lord Proprietor has Ever had any Intention to Infringe the Liberties or Privileges of the people or to Govern otherwise than according to the usage and Customs of the Country since the first Settlement thereof. But merely to assert their rights and Liberties and to transmit them since thereof and of the nature of their Constitution to posterity without the least Design of reflecting upon any person whatsoever
