

And Mr. Chubb. Viz. By the Lower House of Assembly Nov 22nd 1722 May it please your Honor, this House having taken the report of the Conference concerning the free schools into consideration (and concurred therewith but as the Establishment of them upon a good foundation is of the last consequence to the Country we are apprehensive there will not be time enough to consider all Circumstances that relate to them in the manner they deserve without lengthening the Session beyond what maybe at this time convenient for the Country or the members, of both Houses. we propose therefore the referring that Affair to the next Session
