

By the Upper House of Assembly Nov. the 2nd 1722 Guttenew In Answer to your Message by Mr Tyler & Mr Crabb: This House is of Opinion that if a short bill be brought in this Session to Distribute the money now in the hands of the Treasurers of this province in so many Equal parts as by the Conference (with whose report this house concurs) is Determined and as is agreed to by your House and we are rather of this Opinion because the Treasurer of the Western Shore is apprehensive of being robb'd, - now that it is so publickly known that he has by him so considerable a time besides that to refer a thing of that consequence to next Session would prevent the Immediate settling of Schools, tho' Extremely wanted which yet might be a good forwardness by next Session and render a greater sum of money usefull and dead to the province.
