The following Message was sent to the Upper House by John Mackall and three others Viz - By the Lower House of Assembly Nov: 3rd 1722, This House having considered your Message of the second Instant by John Hallam is of Opinion that the bringing of a bill for the Distribution of the Money in the Treasurers Hands into so many parts as it should be is Impracticable and continuing the Session till next Week because there will be a necessity in such a bill of appointing persons to receive & Apply the money and as to any Danger the Treasurer of the Western Shore may apprehend of being Robbed, then and some Gent^l will take some of the money and give undoubted Security to pay it when Demanded, which will be an Ease to the Treasurer in that Particular - But if he is unwilling to part with the Money and uneasy to keep it this House thinks there is no Difficulty in finding a person that will undertake that Charge & give the necessary Security Signed per order M. Gougeon Ch. Lo. House
