

By the Upper House of Assembly, October the 19th, 1723.

Gentlemen,

3rd Message.

WE perceive that you are inclined to make a very advantageous Bargain with us, by your Proposal in your Message this Day by Col. M. and three more, That we should give up our pretensions of Right to our Allowances for the future, for your consent to allow us, what we ought to have at this Time, An Offer, which we think unbecoming your House, and which we Reject with Indignation. If you please to consent to allow what we claim as our Right, we are ready to assent to the Journal of your Committee of Accounts, but have nothing to do with your Resolutions; and the Terms you propose, we shall never agree to.

Sign'd per Order, S. S. Cl. Up. Ho.

Thereupon the following Message is prepared, viz.

By the Lower House of Assembly, October the 19th 1723.

May it please your Honours;

Answer.

SINCE your Honours will not agree to our Proposals, we desire you'll be pleased to send down the Journal of the Committee of Accounts, that a Committee may be appointed to lay the Publick Levy, or else as we have nothing before us, we shall Adjourn.

Sign'd per Order, M. J. Cl. Lo. Ho.

Which was sent to the Upper House by Mr. B. and three other Members. They Return, and say, they delivered it.

Journal of Accounts from the Upper House.

J. B. Esq; from the Upper House, delivers Mr. Speaker the Journal of the Committee of Accounts, with the following Message, viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly, October the 19th 1723.

Dissented to.

We have herewith sent you the Journal of the Committee of Accounts, but cannot assent to it, as it now stands.
