Mr. Speaker communicates to this House, His Honour the Governour's Answer to the Address of this House, contained in the Words following, viz.

Gentlemen,

I sincerely thank you for your Expressions of Kindness towards me. I shall always be ready to join with you in a faithful Discharge of our Duties, to our most gracious Sovereign, to his Lordship the Lord Proprietary, and the People you represent; being really devoted to a steady Pursuit of the Happiness and Glory of the Province of MARYLAND.

Benedict Leonard Calvert.

Col. Belt, from the Committee of Aggrievances and Courts of Justice, makes the following Report, viz.

By the Committee of Aggrievances, October 9.

It is humbly offer'd, by this Committee, That the Resolves of last Session of Assembly, relating to the proving of Accounts against dead Men's Estates, be now taken into the Consideration of this House.

Charles Calvert, Esq; from the Upper House, delivers Mr. Speaker, the following Message, viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly, October 9. 1728.

Gentlemen,

On reading the Bill, entituled, An Act to repeal an Act, entituled, An Act prohibiting the Importation of Bread, Beer, Flower, &c. we perceive you have altered the usual Stile, in the Enacting Part thereof, for which we desire to know your Reasons, before we pass that Bill.

Adjourn'd till to Morrow Morning 9 a-Clock.

I Do (by Order of the House of Delegates of the Province of Maryland) appoint William Parks, to Print the Votes and Resolves of the said House.

John Mackall, Speaker.
