

(Monday July 28, 1729.)

THE House met according to Adjournment. The Members were call'd, and all present, except Mr. Crabb, as on Saturday. The Proceedings of Saturday were read over.

Capt. Blackstone appears in the House this Day. The Question being put, Whether this House should address the Governour jointly, with the Upper House, concerning the settling a friendly Correspondence with the Gentlemen of Virginia, or separately? Resolv'd, that the Address be jointly.

Order'd, That Mr. Dulany, Col. Gale, Mr. Jenings, and Mr. Samuel Hanjon, do join such Members as shall be appointed by the Upper House, to prepare the Address.

The following Message being prepared, was order'd to be enter'd thus:

By the Lower House of Assembly, July 28, 1729.

May it please your Honours,

This House hath resolv'd, as by your Message of the Twenty Fifth of this Instant, sent here by Benjamin Tasker, Esq; was propos'd to address the Governour, in Conjunction with you, pursuant to the Report of the Conferees, appointed by both Houses, to settle a friendly Correspondence with our Neighbours, the Virginians; and hath appointed Mr. Dulany, Col. Gale, Mr. Jenings, and Mr. Samuel Hanjon, to join any Members of your House, to prepare the said Address.

Sign'd per Order, M. Macnemara, Cl. Lo. Ho.

Sent to the Upper House by Col. Gale, Mr. Jenings, and Mr. Hanson; who return, and say they deliver'd the same.

The Bill, Intituled, An Act to make and emit Twenty Four Thousand Pounds current Money, &c. was read the first Time, and order'd to lie on the Table.

Edmund Jenings, Esq; from the Committee of Laws, delivers to Mr. Speaker, a Bill, Intituled, An Act to encourage the Importation of Gold and Silver into this Province.

The Bill, Intituled, An Act for the better Administration of Justice in Testamentary Affairs, &c. coming under Consideration of the House this Day, and the Message sent with it; wherein Amendments were propos'd to the said Bill,

It was resolv'd, That none of the Amendments propos'd by the Upper House, in their said Message, to the said Bill, be made; except the Ninth, Thirteenth, and Fourteenth.

Philip Lee, Esq; from the Upper House, delivers to Mr Speaker, the Bill, Intituled, An Act for the Relief of Creditors, and to prevent Frauds and Deceits occasioned by secret Sales, &c. thus indors'd, viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly, July 26, 1729.

Read the first Time, and order'd to lie on the Table.

Sign'd per Order, John Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.

And thus, By the Upper House of Assembly, July 28, 1729.

Read a second Time, and will pass.

Sign'd per Order, John Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.

The House adjourns until Two of the Clock in the Afternoon.

(Monday, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon.)

The House met according to Adjournment. The Members were called, and all present as in the Morning, except Col. Herman.

The Bill, Intituled, An Act for the Relief of Creditors, and to prevent Frauds and Deceits, occasioned by secret Sales, &c. was read and pass'd for Ingrossing.
