BENEDICT LEONARD CALVERT.

After which the Governour was pleas'd to make the following Speech, viz.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

I Answer to the joint Address presented Me by both Houses, on Wednesday last, I promise you my best Endeavours to engage such a Friendly Correspondence with our Neighbours of Virginia, as you desire; which, indeed, seems the most probable Means of promoting the Value of Tobacco, a common Concern to both Colonies.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

I sincerely thank you for the Marks of your Good-Will towards Me. I shall give Orders for the Alteration to be made in the Provincial Commission, agreeable to your late Address.

Gentlemen of both Houses,

Before I dismiss you, I desire you would favourably accept my earnest Wishes for your General Welfare, which I hope you will daily advance in your several Counties, by a faithful Duty to the Government, in all its Parts; and by mutual Justice and Good-Humour amongst your selves.

BENEDICT LEONARD CALVERT.

Then the Governour, with the Advice of his Lordship's Council, was pleas'd to prorogue this Assembly to the Third Tuesday of November next.

Thereupon, Mr. Speaker, with the rest of the Members, return to the Lower House, where Mr. Speaker re-assum'd his Chair, and repeated what the Governour had done and said. Whereupon this House accordingly prorogues itself to the Third Tuesday of November next.

So endeth this Second Session of Assembly, this Eighth Day of August, 1729.

Test. M. Mianemara, Cl. Lo. Hc.

By Order of the Lower House of Assembly, I do authorize and appoint William Parks to print the Votes and Proceedings of the said House,

JOHN MACKALL, Speaker.
