

attendant on the Petitioner's Case,) this be not drawn into a conclusive Precedent hereafter.

The Petition of John Hendrickson, of Kent County, was read, and granted.

Order'd, That the Committee of Laws prepare an Address to the Governour, in order to know if His Lordship hath communicated to him any Reasons for his Dissent to the several Laws lately dissolv'd by Proclamation; and to desire he will please to communicate them (if any) to this House.

Order'd, That Mr. Holliday, Mr. Hemsley, Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Worthington, and Major Turbutt, adjust and settle the Accounts between Mr. Robert Alexander and Mr. John Smith, of Cecil County.

Benjamin Tasker, Esq; from the Upper House, delivered to Mr. Speaker, the following Message, viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly, May 23, 1730.

Gentlemen,

The Agreement made by the Commissioners appointed by both Houses, last Session, with a Workman to build a separate Repository for the Records, not being comply'd with, the Workman being run away: And as the same Reason still subsists, for the building such a Repository, We desire you'll appoint some of your Members to join Benjamin Tasker, Esq; Member of this House, that they may agree with other Workmen, for the Performance of so useful a Building for the Publick Good.

Sign'd per Order, John Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.

Daniel Dulany, Esq; from the Committee of Laws, appointed to prepare an Address to the Governour, brought in the same, and read it in his Place; which the House approved of, and order'd the same to be ingross'd.

The Question was put, Whether the Votes and Proceedings of the House, be printed this Session, upon the same Terms they were last Session, or not? Resolv'd in the Affirmative.

The Governour sent the following Answer to the Address of this House of Yesterday, viz.

Gentlemen,

I AM heartily obliged to you for your kind Address, and please my self with the Hopes of an happy Issue to this Session; whereunto I shall not fail to contribute, whatsoever, in Justice and Reason, can be expected on my Part, by the Good People of Maryland.

BENEDICT LEONARD CALVERT.

Daniel Dulany, Esq; brings into the House, the ingross'd Address to the Governour; which was read and approved of.

James Harris, Esq; and Mr. Walter Smith, were ordered to go and acquaint the Governour, this House hath prepared an Address to him; and desires to know when and where he will receive the same. They return, and acquaint Mr. Speaker, they delivered their Message, and that the Governour would be ready immediately to receive the same in the Council Chamber.

The Address was as followeth, viz.

To
