And the following Amendments, viz.

Amendments proposed to the Tobacco-Law.

By the Lower House of Assembly, June 9, 1730.

' And whereas the People called Quakers, make a Scruple of Conscience of paying the Forty per Poll, settled for supporting the Clergy of this Province, which therefore hath been always levied on them by Way of Execution. Be it therefore Enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Sheriffs of the Counties, where any Quakers reside, shall, and may, by Virtue of this Act, and their Office, at any convenient Time, before the Fifteenth Day of March. Yearly, levy (by Way of Execution) on such Quakers, the Grain appointed by this Act, to be paid in Lieu of one fourth Part of the Forty per Poll; and so much besides, as shall bear and defray the Charge and Expence of carrying such Grain to such Place or Places, as Grain payable by other People, is directed by this Act, to be carried to. And be it further Enacted, That in case the said Sheriffs shall not be able, or shall be hindered from levying such Grain as aforesaid; that then, and in such Cases, the whole Forty per Poll shall be levied by Way of Execution, as it hath been usually levied; and as if this Act never had been made: Any thing in this Act to the contrary, notwithstanding.'
