John Hall, Esq; from the Upper House, delivered to Mr. Speaker the following Message, viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly, June 13, 1730.

Gentlemen,

On Reading the Report of the Committee of both Houses, for Inspection of the Records of the Commissaries and Secretary's Offices; and having heard the Allegations of Mr. Denton, and Mr. Beckingham, in their Justifications, this House is of Opinion, That the said William Beckingham enter into Recognizance before some one of his Lordship's Justices of the Provincial Court, in the Sum of Fifty Pounds, to be and appear before next Provincial Court, to answer all such Things as shall be then and there objected against him; and in the mean Time, that he be of good Behaviour; and that upon his so doing, he be discharged from the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, and that Mr. Denton defray the Charges of a private Bill passed this Session, for Recording a Deed from Mr. Van Bebber, to Mr. Bordley; and that he forthwith send to the Deputy-Commissaries of the several Counties, or the Executors, or Administrators of these Estates, whereof the Inventories are not to be found, and procure of them Inventories of such Estates as are wanting, and lay them before the Commissary-General, for his Inspection, to be compared with the Book of Entries; and that the several Inventories, now in the Office Unrecorded, and which ought to have been Recorded, during his being Register in the Commissary's Office; and those that may hereafter be returned, he Record them, or cause them to be Recorded in the said Office, at his own Charge; with which this House desires your Concurrence.

The following Message, viz.

Sign'd per Order, John Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.
By the Lower House of Assembly, June 13, 1730.

May it please your Honours,

In Answer to your Message of this Day by John Hall, Esq; concerning the Report made by the Committee of both Houses, to inspect the Records in the Commissaries and Secretary's Office; this House concurs therewith.

Sign'd per Order, M. Macnemara, Cl. Lo. Ho.

Sent to the Upper House, by Capt. Gordon and Mr. Hemsley; who return, and say they delivered the same.

Col. Holland, from the Upper House, delivered to Mr. Speaker, the Paper Bill, Intituled, An Act to ascertain the Fees of Practitioners of the Law, &c.

Indors'd thus:

By the Upper House of Assembly, June 13, 1730.
