And the following Message:

By the Upper House of Assembly, 29 July, 1732.

Gentlemen,

On reading the Bill herewith sent, We find that the following Clause, which was in the former Law, is omitted; and the Master or Masters of every such Ship or Vessel coming into this Province, shall, at his or their first Arrival here, and before their lading on Board any Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of this Province, give good and sufficient Security for the Payment of the several Duties before by this Act impos'd. And as we are of Opinion, that this is a convenient Addition to be made to the Bill; if your House concurs therein, it may be inserted at the End of the first Paragraph, of the last Side.

Sign'd per Order, John Rofs, Cl. Up. Ho.

The Bill, intituled, An Act for laying an Imposition on Tobacco, by the Hoghead, for the Support of Government, &c. Read and pass'd for Ingrossing.

The House adjourns until Monday Morning, Eight of the Clock.
