By the Lower House of Assembly, March 24, 1734.

May it please your Honours,

This House hath appointed Col. Gale, Mr. Trippe, Mr. Moale, Major Sprigg, Mr. Hemsley, and Mr. Tilghman, to join any Members your House shall appoint, as a Committee, to enquire into the Accounts and Proceedings of the Commissioners of the Paper Currency.

Sign'd per Order, M. Macnemara, Cl. Lo. Ho.

Sent to the Upper House, by Major Sprigg, and Mr. Trippe. They return, and say, they delivered the Message.

Mr. Dulany, from the Committee of Laws, brings in the following Address to the Governor.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of the Freemen of MARYLAND, in Assembly convened, return Your Excellency Our most humble and hearty Thanks for Your kind SPEECH at the Opening of this Session: And, as We received the News of the Marriage of the PRINCESS ROYAL with His Serene Highness the PRINCE OF ORANGE, with as much Joy and Satisfaction as any of His Majesty's faithful Subjects, so We should be very much wanting to Our selves, were We to neglect, this first Time of Our Meeting in Assembly since We heard of that great Event, (notwithstanding the Length of Time) to testify Our Joy on so happy an Occasion; and of expressing the deepest Sense of Gratitude to Our Most Gracious Sovereign, for His Paternal Care and Goodness, in taking the wisest and most certain Measures to perpetuate to latest Posterity the same Felicities all His Subjects enjoy under His auspicious Government.
