Col King from the Committee of Accounts Delivers the follow report
By a Committee appointed to Enquire into the Several Allegations contained in the Petition of Charles Carroll Gent^l

Your Committee Reports that they have Carefully Examined the Several facts recited in the said petition and do find that there is a Debt of Benjamin and Sales, from Mich^l Curtis and Sarah his wife Mary the Defendant's Secular hundred and eleven to Charles Carroll Esq^r Debtor on the Bank of which Debt it appears that the Private Examination of said Sarah was taken before Sam^l W. Dickinson then a magistrate of St Marys County on the Twenty sixth Day of June following there also appeared a person of Attorney, and named to himself Thos^l Reg^r &c to claim a debt the said Debt which was accordingly Acknowledged on the said Twenty sixth Day of June before William Galand Esq^r Deceased then a Provincial Magistrate your Committee also Reports -
