 Capt. Gordon with the Journal of accounts viz - -

By the Lower House of Assembly May 5th 1736

May it please your Honours - The Messages Sent to your Honours from this House
 By Col. Hooper and Col. Ward could not possibly be more agreeable to you than your answer
 To it in this House and as the putting to happy an end to all Disputes concerning The Councils allowances as is proposed in your last Message must contribute to Keep up that Harmony between the Two Houses which is absolutely necessary To Dispatch the publick Business so it cannot but be very advantageous to the People as it will certainly prevent the Charge which would unavoidably attend Unnecessary disputes and therefore this House concurs with what your Honours propose and now send the Journal Desiring your Concurrence thereto
