

Which Bill with the Commission of Enquiry passed from the House of Commons to the House of Lords...
The Upper House with the Paper Bill by Mr. Speaker the following Message, George the Third from the Upper House of Assembly the following Message, Gentlemen the Inhabitants and Jurors of the County of York, which had come in the Year of the said Bill,
The said Bill has been read and considered in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill is a necessary and proper Measure for the Relief of the said County of York, and that the said Bill be read a second Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.

And the said Bill is read a second Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a third Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.
The said Bill is read a third Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a fourth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.

The said Bill is read a fourth Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a fifth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.
The said Bill is read a fifth Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a sixth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.

The said Bill is read a sixth Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a seventh Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.
The said Bill is read a seventh Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read an eighth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.

The said Bill is read an eighth Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a ninth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.
The said Bill is read a ninth Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a tenth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.

The said Bill is read a tenth Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read an eleventh Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.
The said Bill is read an eleventh Time in the House of Commons and it is the Opinion of the House,
That the said Bill be read a twelfth Time and passed with the Amendments thereunto made,
and that the said Bill be sent to the House of Lords for their Consideration and Consent.