

By the Upper House of Assembly, May 31. 1739.

Gentlemen,

HOWever surprizing the Truths mentioned in our Message of Yesterday, by James Hollyday, Esq; may be to your House, yet they are not the less Truths for that Reason: But as the Publick Good requires our sole Attention, we shall wave further Notice of what is justly exceptionable in your Message by Messrs. King and Lloyd, and proceed to acquaint you, that the Conferrees appointed by this House, will meet the Conferrees named by your House, at Mr. Lomas's immediately.

Signed per Order, J. Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.

At a Conference appointed by the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, relating to an Officers Fee Bill, on Thursday the 31st May, 1739. VIZ.

The Honourable { Edmund Fenings, } Esqrs. of the Upper House,
 { Levin Gale, }

Doctor Carroll,
 Mr. Calder,
 Mr. George,
 Mr. Stoughton,
 Mr. Denton,
 Mr. Robert Fenskins Henry, } of the Lower House,

Whomake Choice of the Honorable Edmund Fenings, Esq; their Chairman,
 And of Thomas Lynn their Clerk,

The Conferrees appointed by the Upper House, informed the Conferrees appointed by the Lower House, that they were Comanded by the Upper House to acquaint the Conferrees of the Lower House, that the Upper House could agree to no Law to Establish Officers Fees but what should be Perpetual, and were Ordered not to proceed to consider of any Fees till the Sense of the Lower House on that Point should be made known.

To which the Conferrees appointed by the Lower House, say, they cannot give any Answer until they advise their House thereof, and take their Directions therein.

And thereupon the Conferrees adjourn until to Morrow Morning at 10 of the Clock.

Signed per Order of the Conferrees, Tho. Lynn, Clerk.
