Mr. Matthews from the Committee of Aggrievances, &c. delivers Mr. Speaker the following Report.

By the Committee of Aggrievances and Courts of Justice, June 1. 1739.

Your Committee most humbly observe, that since the Erecting of a Chancery Court by the Laws of this Province, the Custom and Usage has been, where Matters were to be Examined into out of Court, that upon the Prayer of the Parties to the Chancellor, a Commission did Issue to Four credible Gentlemen of the Neighbourhood most capable, and living commodious, to Examine Evidences, Accounts, and other Matters, and to make Return of such their Proceedings into the said Chancery Court.

That the said Method has been found Convenient, and of no great Charge to the Suitors in the said Court.

That of late a new Office has been Erected, and an Officer appointed in the said Chancery Court, without any Law of this Province to Support the same, and by whom new Fees are taken, Burthensome and Oppressive: And the said Office and Officer no way Answering the Convenience and Service of the People, equal to the Commissioners so as aforesaid.

time out of mind appointed to the same Purposes and Uses.

Your Committee most humbly conceive, that according to the Laws of our Mother Country (the Birth-right of every Liege Subject here) that no new Offices can be Erected with new Fees, nor new Fees appointed to old Offices, without our Common Assent in Assembly: Wherefore, and inasmuch as the Contrary has been done in this Case, your Committee most humbly conceive the same to be an Aggrievance, and Innovation on the Right of his Majesty's Liege, Natural and Dutiful Subjects the People of Maryland:
