

Maryland: But is most humbly Submitted to the Consideration of your Honourable House. Signed after Order of the Committee, at Berkeley, City of which Report was Read. The House unanimously Concurred therewith. The House Adjourn'd to the Morning of the 27th of the Month.

The House Adjourn'd to the Morrow Morning at 9 of the Clock.

The House Met according to Adjournment.

All present that were yesterday, except Mr. Edward Lloyd and Mr. Dulany.

Mr. Asquith hath Leave to go Home.

The Conference relating to an Officers' Fee Bill, deliver Mr. Speaker the following Report:

~~Friday Morning the Conference meet~~

The Conferees of the Lower House, deliver the Conferees of the Upper House.

Answer to the Proposal of the Conferees of the Upper House, the Directions of the Lower House to their said Conferees, in Answer to the Proposal of the Conferees of the Upper House, which Directions are as follows, Viz.

" This House having taken into Consideration the Report of their Members appointed Conference concerning the Officers Fee Bill, and the Proposal made by the Conference appointed by the Upper House, of making that Bill a perpetual Act, do unanimously agree, that it would be of the most dangerous and destructive Consequence to the People of this Province to make such an Act perpetual.

" And that their Conference aforesaid, have it in Charge to acquaint the Conference of the Upper House with this their Resolution, and reject the Proposal aforesaid: "

" And that if the said Conferees from the Upper House should refuse to proceed in the Conference without this House's acquiescing in that Proposal, they be told as from this House, that all the Evils that shall arise to the People of this Province for want of an Act for Regulating Officers Fees, must be laid to the Charge of the Upper House, inasmuch as this House by the Bill proposed, have given larger Fees and a longer Duration than has been in the like Act in our neighbouring Colony of Virginia, which is immediately under his Majesty's auspicious Government and Protection, and have done every other Thing in their Power in order to render such a Bill Useful to the Province."

The Conference Adjourn to 3 of the Clock in the Afternoon.

The Conferees Meet according to Adjournment; and thereupon the Conferees of the Upper House deliver to the Conferees of the Lower House a Paper, the Purport of which are in the following Words, Viz.
