

However, it seems this Matter must be determined by a Judge indifferent both to his Lordship and us; and as it cannot be negotiated on our Part, without Money to employ some fit Persons to act in the Country's behalf, we expect your Honours Concurrence to the Bill herewith sent for Taxing ourselves for that Purpose, lest if that should be refused, the World might say, that we are attacked unarmed, and denied the necessary Means of doing ourselves Justice, in a Dispute wherein the most essential Branch of the Privileges and Liberties of British Subjects are in Contest, and of that great Advantage due to his Majesty's American Subjects, of applying to his Sacred Person for Redress and Protection.

By Mr. Calder and Mr. Sberedine.
