By the Committee of Aggrievances and Courts of Justice. May 9. 1739.

Your Committee having received a Complaint from Mr. John Brannock, one of the Members of your honourable House, that the said John Brannock gave Bonds payable to Edmund Jenings, Esq; with Power to Confess Judgment on the said Bonds, for Fees arising due to the said Edmund Jenings as Secretary of this Province, which Bonds the said Edmund Jenings Remitted to Mr. Peter Taylor then Sheriff of Dorchester County, to be received.

That the said John Brannock offered to pay the said Taylor, and his Deputy John Mackeel, the said several Fees due, and which the said Bonds were taken: After which Tender, he the said Taylor, contrary to all Justice, Reason and Law, procured Judgments to be render'd on the said Bonds,

That the said John, after Rendering the said Judgments also, in like manner made Tender of the said Tobacco.

Notwithstanding which repeated Tenders of him the said John Brannock, he the said John was seized with Executions on the said Judgments, and his Body detained in Prison, to his Great Expence and Damage, both of his Person and Fortune.
