The Governor Communicated the following Answer to the Address of this House, Viz.

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

I Have perused your Address delivered to me by your Speaker, on the 5th Instant, and cannot but be very much surprized to find, that instead of such mutual Civilities as have usually passed at the Beginning of former Assemblies, your Address contains Charges against the Government in general, and Myself in particular, which I am confident are without Foundation, and which, I am very sorry to say, seem rather calculated to create Animosities and foment Differences, than to forward the Publick Good; however, I must own myself obliged to you, for giving me so fair and publick an Opportunity of Vindicating my
