Annapolis, October 6. 1739.

Sir,

To Mr. William Gbifelin, Deputy Clerk of the Provincial Court. These

Your humble Servant,

C. Carroll.

Upon Consideration whereof, this Board is of Opinion, that the said Charles Carroll, and Vachel Denton, by the said Letter endeavour to Act under the Authority, and as a Committee of the Lower House of Assembly, which stands now Protogued, contrary to the Opinion and Sense of this Board expressed in a former Order made the first Day of August 1739, and of which Order this Board is informed the said Charles Carroll and Vachel Denton had notice: Therefore this Board is of Opinion, and it is accordingly Ordered, That Mr. Gbifelin, Chief Clerk of the Provincial Court, make out for, and give to, any Person whatsoever, any Copy or Copies which shall be particularized to him, by such Person or Persons either paying or securing the usual Fees due for such Services, but that he ought not to give or make out such Copies in pursuance of the said Letter.

Gentlemen,

I have received yours, and you may perceive by the within Copy of an Order of Council, I am restrained from taking any notice or paying any obedience to, your Command as a Committee of the Lower House of Assembly; but am ready to make either of you what Copies you shall desire, upon securing or paying the usual Fees to the Secretary for the same. And am, Gentlemen, Your very humble Servant,

W. Gbifelin.

Octob. 30. 1739.

To Dr. Carroll and Mr. Denton.

To his Excellency SAMUEL OGLE, Esq; Governor of Maryland.

The Remonstrance of Charles Carroll, Vachel Denton, Edward Sprigg, Turnor Wootton, Osborn Sprigg, and John Magruder, Members of the House of Delegates of the said Province, appointed to take Copies of Records and transmit the same to Great Britain, &c.

May it please your Excellency,

WE are really concerned that any Act, supposed to be Ours, should give Offence, being what by all means we desire to avoid. Observing a Letter from Mr. Stephen Bordley, to Mr. William Gbifelin, dated 19 June, 1739, made part of the Proceedings of Council, as if the same
