

Message of the 10th of May last, in these Words, viz. "Had the many Objections made in your Message of the 8th Instant by Col. Harris, to our Bill for issuing 2636l. 16s 3d. for encouragement of Persons Inlisting themselves in his Majesty's Service, been proposed as Amendments, or had you left us any room to expect your Approbation of it with such Amendments, we certainly should have concurred with many of them, and the others by Conferences or otherwise, might have been so accommodated as that the Bill might have been agreed upon and passed by both Houses:" Which plainly shews that your House was then of Opinion, that Conferences between the Two Houses about Money Bills, were not then thought any Infringement of your Privileges, and the Heads of that Bill was accordingly agreed upon by a Conference of both Houses, and Passed into a Law.
