

Transporting them to the Place of Rendezvous in the West-Indies: And the other entituled, An Act for the Indemnity of such Persons as shall be employed in Transporting his Majesty's Troops to be raised in this Province to the general Rendezvous in the West-Indies: Severally Indorsed, By the Upper House of Assembly, July 18. 1740. The Ingrossed Bill whereof this is the Original is Read and Assented to.

Signed per Order, J. Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.

The House Adjourns to 2 of the Clock in the Afternoon.

Post Meridiem.

On Motion that an Address be prepared to his Excellency the Governor to put an End to this Session,

Ordered, That Col. King, Col. Colvill, Dr. Carroll, and Mr. Calder prepare and bring in the same.

The following Address to his Excellency was brought in, Read, Approved, and Ordered to be Ingrossed, Viz.

To his Excellency SAMUEL OGLE, Esq; Governor of Maryland,
The humble Address of the House of Delegates of the said Province:
May it please your Excellency,

Immediately after we had dispatched the Bills for his Majesty's Service, which your Excellency recommended to have the first place in our Proceedings, we sent to the Upper House Bills for Reviving several Laws which had expired at the last Session of Assembly, and which are generally acknowledged to be necessary for the Welfare of the People.

Most of those Acts having been in use many Years, and often re-enacted, cannot in our apprehension require much Time for Consideration, yet they have now lain above a Week before that House, without being either sent down, or any thing said for the unusual detention of them.

As this Behaviour of that House not only gives us grounds to fear that they do not intend to Pass those Laws, but also puts an entire stop to any further Business with us, and consequently accumulates the Country's Charge, without any appearance of having any thing done for the Publick Good.

We therefore submit it to your Excellency's discretion, whether it may not be more conducive to the People's Benefit to have an End put to the Session, than to continue it longer without a prospect of doing any thing further for their Advantage.

The Address to his Excellency being Ingrossed, was brought in, and was Signed by Order and on Behalf of the House of Delegates of the Province of Maryland, by the honourable Speaker.

Col. Hanson and Mr. Matthews Ordered to acquaint his Excellency