

the Journal, that the Publick Creditors of this Province may no longer suffer.

Signed per Order, M. Macnemara, Cl. Lo. Ho.

Sent to the Upper House by the Committee of Accounts.

The Bill, entituled, An Act for the Relief of Samuel Deavor, &c.

Was Read, and with the Amendments Passed for Ingrossing.

The House Adjourns to 2 of the Clock in the Afternoon.

Post Meridiem.

The House met according to Adjournment.

Edmund Fenings and James Hollyday, Esqrs. from the Upper House, acquaint Mr. Speaker, the Governor requires the Attendance of this House in the Upper House, to see the Two Ingrossed Bills, Assented to by both Houses, Passed into Laws.

Mr. Speaker, and the rest of the Members, went to the Upper House, where his Excellency Passed the Bill, entituled,

An Act for Raising and Issuing Money for Maintaining his Majesty's Forces to be Raised in this Province, and for Transporting them to the Place of Rendezvous in the West-Indies; And the Bill entituled,

An Act for the Indemnity of such Persons as shall be employed in Transporting his Majesty's Troops to be raised in this Province to the general Rendezvous in the West-Indies; Into Laws:

By Affixing the Greater Seal at Arms to each, and Declaring, On Behalf of the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary of this Province, I Will this be a Law.

An Ingrossed Bill, entituled, An Act for the Relief of Samuel Deavor, Michael Taylor, William Burros, James Carter, Sarah Butcher and William Biggs, languishing Prisoners: Read, and Assented to, and sent to the Upper House, with the Paper Bill, by Mr. Denton and Mr. Brome.

Mr. Speaker communicated to the House the following Answer from the Governor:

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

UPON the perusal of your Address delivered to me Yesterday by Col. Hanson, I find little or nothing in Answer to what I laid before you in my Message of the 23^d Instant, therefore must think what I there said was so just and reasonable that it will not admit of an Answer.

The greatest part of this Address, concerning the several Disputes that have passed between you and the Upper House, not relating to myself, I must refer you and every other Person to what has passed in the several Messages between the Two Houses on the Occasion.

I must confess I have a very great Opinion of the Honour and Justice of