By the Upper House of Assembly, July 29. 1740.

Gentlemen,

IT is really high Time for us to be silent, when we find you not only say what comes uppermost in your own Thoughts, but even endeavour to make us say what never entered into ours, or can be implied from our Words; As a Specimen of This you urge, " As if we thought it inconsistent with the Disposition of the Governor or Chancellor to shew either Mercy or Lenity without being paid for the same by the Publick, contrary to a Law of the Province," whereas we only told you " that we were surprized you should think it inconsistent with your Duty and the Laws of the Province to allow the Article of 120 lb. Tobacco, since that Fee arose from the Mercy and Lenity of the Governor shewn to an Offender by the Seal of a Pardon:" Does this import that it is inconsistent with the Disposition of the Governor and Chancellor to shew either
