

cellor, Commissary-General, Secretary, Agent, or Attorney-General, either for us or them, our or their Servants, Attendants or Horses, shall be obliged to Pay any Ferriage, but shall be wholly Exempt from any such Payment, any Thing in this License to the contrary notwithstanding. The said                    to have and enjoy the said Ferry, and to receive and take to their own Use the several Rewards aforesaid, except as before excepted, Yielding and Paying therefore for the same, to us, or to our Agent and Receiver-General for the Time being at his Dwelling-House, the Sum of                    Pounds Sterling, for our Use. Witness our said Agent at Annapolis, the                    Day of                    in the                    of our Dominion. Anno Dom.

Which was Read, and referred for Consideration on Monday next.

Samuel Chamberlain, Esq; from the Upper House, delivers Mr. Speaker the Bill, entituled, An Act to prevent the exportation of Indian Corn for the Time therein limited; Indorsed, ‘ By the Upper House of Assembly, June 12. 1741. Read the Second Time, and will Pass with the following Amendments; the Word Fifteenth, in 8th 11th and 14th Lines, to be made Twentieth: Alter the Word Forfeitures, in 8th Line of 2d Page, put these Words, to the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary his Heirs and Successors, instead of the Words, shall be divided amongst the greatest Objects of Charity in the County where such Seizure shall be made, of which Objects the major Part of the Justices of such County shall judge and determine.

‘ Signed per Order, J. Ross, Cl. Up. Ho.

To which Amendment the House would not agree, and thereupon

Resolved, That the Amendment proposed of one Moiety of the Forfeiture to the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary his Heirs and Successors (instead of the Charitable Intention to which it was apply'd) being Extraordinary and Unprecedented, this House conceive it more for the Safety and Interest of the People, to remain without such Bill, than to Pass it with such an unprecedented Amendment; and of which hereafter Use may be made prejudicial to the Rights and Liberty of the People.

James Harris, Esq; from the Upper House, delivers Mr. Speaker the Bill entituled, An Act investing Archibald Douglas of Cæcil County Son and Heir of William and Mary Douglas Deceased, with an Estate in Fee Simple in the one Moiety of a Tract of Land called The Level or Scutt's Level lying in Baltimore County; Indorsed, ‘ By the Upper House of Assembly, June 12. 1741. Read the Second Time, and will Pass.

Which Bill was here Read, and Passed for Ingrossing.

Philip Lee, Esq; from the Upper House, delivers Mr. Speaker the
