

himself, to proceed to the Execution of the same Order: Which is humbly submitted to the Consideration of the House.

Charles Carroll.

S I R,

July 22. 1741.

IN Pursuance of an Order of the House of Delegates, last Session, that you and myself should collect Copies of the Acts of Virginia, touching Testamentary and Administration Affairs, and Fees relating to them; I have perused all the Laws of that Colony that I have, and find the following, viz.

4. Anne, Chap. xiii.
10. Anne, Chap. ii.
1. George II. Chap. xi, Sect. 5, 12, &c.
3. and 4. George II. Chap. viii.

Which with the Table, as an Index thereto, appear to me the only to be collected, and given to Mr. Green to be Printed; and the Fees allowed in the Secretary's and County-Court Offices on the same, by 12. Geo. II. Chap. x. which is the latest Act I find of that Colony, regulating Officers Fees.

If you judge any thing further needful from those Laws, I shall be ready to join with you, to discharge the Trust reposed in us.

That the Intention of the House may appear, I propose the inclosed Introduction to these Laws, or Collection, and am,

S I R,

To
Daniel Dulany, Esq;

Your Most Humble,
And Obedient Servant,
C. CARROLL.

IN Obedience to the following Order of the House of Delegates of the Province of Maryland, this Collection of the Laws of the Colony of Virginia, relating to Testamentary and Administration Affairs, is made by their

Most Obedient, and Humble Servants,

D. DULANY,
C. CARROLL.
