

Friday Morning, October 22, 1742.

THE House met according to Adjournment, &c.
The following Message was sent to the Upper House by Mr. Nicholas Goldsborough and Capt. Harrison: Viz.

By the Lower House of Assembly, October 22, 1742.

May it please Your Honours,

IN Answer to your Message by James Hollyday, Esq; of the 20th Instant: This Session drawing near to a Conclusion, and there being as much Business before the House as can be perfected in a reasonable Time; and the Accounts relating to the Indian Affairs coming so late, We have thought proper to refer them to the next Session of Assembly, as the same will require a more exact Enquiry than we have now Time to make.

Signed per Order, M. Macnemara, Cl. Lo. Ho.

The Ingrossed Bill Entituled, An Act for laying out and erecting a Town, on the South Side of the Eastern Branch of Potomock River, in Prince George's County, near a Place called Garrilon Landing, and

The Ingrossed Bill Entituled, An Act to continue such Causes, now depending in the Provincial Court, &c.

Sent to the Upper House, with the Paper-Bills, by Mr. Calder and Mr. Sprigg.

Mr. Calder delivers Mr. Speaker the following Report, viz.

To the Honourable the House of Delegates of Maryland.

WHEREAS, at a Session of Assembly begun and held at Annapolis, on the Twenty-sixth Day of May, Seventeen Hundred and Forty-one, we the Subscribers, with other Members, were appointed to get Copies of Papers, Records, &c. and the same to transmit to the Agent in London, for the Service of this Province: In Compliance where-with, we transmitted to Ferdinando John Paris, Esq; the following Papers. And as he required a Copy of an Act, relating to the Revenue of Maryland, passed at a Session of Assembly the Thirtieth Day of April, Sixteen Hundred and Seventy-nine, and referred to in an Order of Council,
