An Ingrossed Bill Entituled, An Act for laying out and erecting a Town at a Place called Long-Point, &c. Sent to the Upper House by Col. Colvill and Capt. Hyland.

The House adjourns until the Morrow Morning at 9 of the Clock.

Thursday Morning, October 28, 1742.

THE House met according to Adjournment: All Members present as Yesterday, except Mr. Calder.

On Reading the Report from the Committee appointed to inspect the Office and Proceedings of the Commissioners for emitting Bills of Credit, it appears, That several Clerks of the County-Courts have omitted their Duty, in returning their Lists of the several Ordinary-Keepers, to the Commissioners of the Paper-Office, as they are by Law directed.

The Question was put, Whether the Clerks that have neglected their Duty, shall be sent for this Session, or not?

Resolved in the Negative.
