To the Honourable Col. EDWARD SPRIGG, Speaker of the Lower House of Assembly:

My it please your Honour,

I AM Ordered by the Honourable the Lower House of Assembly, to Print in the Journal of their Votes and Proceedings of this present Session, a Letter from Governor SHIRLEY of the Massachusetts Bay in New-England, to his Excellency our Governor: And I am expressly forbid, by an Order of Council, either to Print, or suffer it to be Printed at my Press. The following is a Copy of the Order, viz.

“ At a Council, held in the Council Chamber

“ On Friday, 23^d August, 1745,

“ His Excellency THOMAS BLADEN, Esq; Governor.

“ WHEREAS, the Printing Governor Shirley's Letter, dated at Boston, July 3^d, 1745, may have a tendency to give such Intelligence to the Enemy as may be very prejudicial to his Majesty's Service: Therefore Jonas Green is hereby strictly charged not to Print or suffer the said Letter to be Printed, in or by his Press, upon any pretence whatsoever, as he shall Answer the contrary at his Peril.

J. Ross, Cl. Con.”

As I am, Sir, solely dependent on the several Branches of the Legislature for a Living (for I can have no Public Money except Granted by your honourable House, nor any, if so Granted, except the other Branches
