An Ingross'd Bill entituled, An Act for Tryal of all Matters of Fact, &c. was Read and Assented to; and sent to the Upper House, with the Paper Bill, by Mr. John Gresham, and Major Barnes.

The following Address, viz.

To his Excellency SAMUEL OGLE, Esq; Governor of Maryland;

The Humble ADDRESS of the House of DELEGATES of the said Province.

May it please your Excellency,

THE RE being a Ballance of the Sum of 187 l. 13 s. 6 d. Sterling, due to the Public of this Province, from Robert Ungle, Esq; late Treasurer of the Eastern Shore; and also a Ballance due from Philip Lee, Esq; late Naval-Officer of North Potomack District. This House did in the Year 1746, request his Excellency Thomas Bladen, Esq; the then Governor, that the said Ungle's Bond might be put in Suit against the Sureties of the said Ungle, their Executors, or Administrators, in such Manner as that the said Money might be recovered for the Use of this Province; and like wise, that his then Excellency would order the Attorney General to sue his the said Lee's Bond, paid for discharge of his Duty in the Office aforesaid, whereby the Public might have such Ballance duly paid.

But forasmuch as it doth not appear to this House, that any Thing hath been done in consequence of that Address, we request that your Excellency will give Directions to the Attorney-General, that proper Process may issue as well against the Sureties of the said Ungle, their Executors or Administrators, as against the Sureties of the said Lee, to the End that the several Sums of Money due and owing on the said Bonds may be recovered for the Use of the Public of this Province.

Was brought in Ingrossed, and was Read and Assented to, and signed by Order of the House by the Honourable Speaker.

Mr. Harrison, and Mr. Harris, were sent to acquaint the Governor, this House hath prepared an Address to him, and desires to know when and where he will please to receive it. They return and acquaint Mr. Speaker, the Governor
