Edmund Jennings, Esq; from the Upper House, delivers to Mr. Speaker the Journal of Accounts, and the following Message; viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly, May 30, 1750.

Gentlemen,

WE find you have taken no Notice of the several Allowances this House, by their Message of the 24th of June in the last Session, and other former Messages, insisted to be made; and also, that you have not mentioned the Allowances due to the Counsellors sitting in Council, and in a Court of Appeals; nor the Salary of the Clerk of the Council for three Years past; and that you have only allowed Part of the Secretary's Account.
