His Excellency communicated to Mr. Speaker the following Message, viz.

" Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

" YOU will be pleased to observe, that the Time, which the Detachments from the Militia of Prince-George's and Baltimore Counties were ordered to remain on the Frontiers, is almost expired: I think
 " it would be highly proper to order some others to march and relieve them, but shall not give such Orders
 " without your Advice.
 " As it must be more agreeable to these Detachments to be Victualled in the same Manner that the Troops
 " at Fort-Frederick are, and as the impressing Provisions from the Frontier Inhabitants, at this Time, might
 " greatly
