But your Committee have been informed by the Agents, that there are many Accounts not brought in, and several of the Services for which Money hath been granted by the afore mentioned Acts, not yet completed; which will, when finished, not only require the afore said Ballances remaining in the Agents Hands, but the greatest, if not all the remaining Part of the 40,000 l. in the Hands of the Commissioners, excepting the Money appropriated for Scalps, the Application whereof depends upon Contingencies.

Your Committee also beg Leave to represent to the Honourable House, that it is their Opinion the Agents ought to balance their Books, and transfer the Ballances into a new Set of Books every Time they are laid before the Assembly, or a Committee thereof, for Examination.

Which is humbly submitted to the Consideration of the Honourable House.

Signed per Order,

BEALE NICHOLSON, Clerk Committee.
