His Excellency the Governor communicated to Mr. Speaker, the following Message, viz.

GENTLEMEN of the Lower House of ASSEMBLY,

AS the Clerks expressed their Desire this Afternoon to return immediately to the Frontiers, I was in Hopes that they would set off To-morrow early in the Morning; but the Conductor tells me that a Demand is made on him for a considerable Sum of Money by the Person who has Victualled the Indians since they have been in Town, and that the Agents will neither advance him Money to pay this Account, or to
