On Reading the second Time the Resolves drawn up, and brought in for mature Consideration of the House, the Question was put, That the following Resolve, viz.

Resolved, That this House has done what was incumbent on them, as faithful and loyal Subjects, towards making a Grant for his Majesty's Service, and the Defence and Security of this Province; and though their Endeavours for those important Purposes have been frustrated by the Non-Concurrence of the Upper House, they are conscious the deplorable Circumstances which this unhappy Province may probably labour under, through Want of such a Grant, cannot be imputed to them. Resolved in the Affirmative.
