

that Dam, if suffered to remain in its present State, will intirely prevent Navigation on Conococheague; and the Builder erected it not only without any Encouragement from our Laws in Being, but against Law, this House thought him very tenderly dealt with by this Bill, in only being obliged to make a sufficient Lock, by the first Day of October next, in which private Interest and public Convenience are intended, as far as they can, to be reconciled. We therefore hope, that on reconsidering the Matter, the same Reasons that influenced this House, will induce your Honours to wave your proposed Amendment.

Signed per Order,

M. MACNEMARA, Cl. Lo. Ho.
