

John Jeremiah Myar, a Fee Simple Estate of a Lot or Portion of Ground, lying and being in the First Street in Frederick-Town, joining on the West Side to John Lingenfelder, with all the Buildings and Profits whatsoever on the said Lot, containing Sixty Feet in Breadth, and Three Hundred and Ninety-three Feet in Length, more or less; and that the said John Jeremiah Myar should pay to the said Daniel Davis, the Sum of Six Hundred and Fifty Pounds Pennsylvania Money for the same. In pursuance of which Contract, the said Daniel Davis gave his Bond to the said John Jeremiah Myar, dated the Day and Year aforesaid, in the Penalty of Thirteen Hundred Pounds Current Money of Maryland, for the Conveyance of the same, which Bond, appearing to be duly executed, was laid before your Committee.

It also appears by the Oath of the said Schley, that the Lot, or Parcel of Ground, as described in the said Bond, includes, and was intended to include Part of the Lot N^o. 39, and Part of the Lot, N^o. 38, mentioned in the Petition: It appears further, by the same Oath, that the said Daniel Davis, himself, settled the Sum due on his Mortgage to Daniel Dulany, Esq; to Four Hundred and Seventy-five Pounds, in Gold and Silver, according to the Terms of the Inspection Act; which Sum the said John Jeremiah Myar passed his Bond, with Security, to Daniel Dulany, at the Request, and by the Directions of the said Daniel Davis, and was to be accounted a Payment of so much of the Six Hundred and Fifty Pounds aforesaid.

It appears further, by the Oath of the said Schley, that at the Time of the Contract aforesaid, that the said Daniel Davis was indebted by Bond unto the said John Jeremiah Myar, in the Sum of One Hundred and Fifty Pounds Maryland Money; and that it was then agreed between the Parties aforesaid, that the same should be accounted as Part of the Sums to be given for the Lot or Parcel of Ground aforesaid; which Bond, appearing also to be duly executed, was laid before your Committee.

It appears to your Committee, that Daniel Davis died about the last of June last, intestate, leaving Three Daughters only, of the Age set forth in the Petition.

All which is humbly submitted to the Consideration of the Honourable House.

Signed by Order,
