

On reading a letter from Mr. John Bracco, setting forth, that he had been informed he was appointed register of wills and a commissioner of the peace for Talbot county, since which nomination he had been chosen and returned a delegate to represent that county, and that in consequence of his appointment he resigned his seat as a delegate for Talbot county aforesaid; And,

A letter from Mr. James Murray, informing the house, that the particular situation of his family obliged him to resign his seat as a delegate for Dorchester county.

The house accepts the resignations of Mr. Bracco and Mr. Murray, and Mr. Speaker issued his warrants for the elections of others in their stead.

On motion; ORDERED, That this house will on to-morrow morning take into consideration the cases of the several absent members, together with that of Mr. William Ennalls.

ORDERED, That the clerk prepare and lay before the house to-morrow morning, a list of the members who are absent without leave.

On reading a letter from the chairman of the committee of Washington county, On motion, leave given to bring in a bill to prevent the distilling of grain. ORDERED, That Mr. S. Chase, Mr. J. Sprigg, Mr. Lethrbury, Mr. Ridgely, and Mr. Chaille, do prepare and bring in the same.

On motion, the question was put, That the appointment of commissioners to meet at York-Town in Pennsylvania on the third Monday of this instant, for the purpose mentioned in the resolution of congress of the fifteenth of February last, be referred to the council of safety? Carried in the negative.

On motion, the question was put, That the several depositions against Mr. Charles Ridgely, transmitted here by the council of safety, be thrown out of the house, being taken ex parte, they having already laid a foundation to enquire into his conduct? Carried in the negative.
