Robert Goldsborough, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker the following message:

By the S E N A T E, March 29, 1777.

Gentlemen,

THE measure pointed out in the resolve, which accompanies this message, we conceive to be of so much importance, that on the timely execution of it depends the preservation of the lives of a large proportion of our forces; if it should appear to you of the same consequence, we make no doubt of its meeting with your ready concurrence.

By order,

R. RIDGELY, cl. sen.

In the S E N A T E, March 29, 1777.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be empowered to order all such of the new recruits, who have not had the small pox, to be immediately inoculated, and to give directions to the field officers to draw the recruits of their respective battalions to such places as the governor and council may judge most convenient for that purpose.

By order,

R. RIDGELY, cl. sen.

Which message and resolve were severally read; the resolve concurred with, so endorsed, and sent to the senate by Mr. Chaille and Mr. Wright.

On motion, RESOLVED, That there be paid to the surgeon of each battalion at the rate of sixty dollars per kalendar month, and the rations allowed by congress.

That there be paid to each surgeon's mate at the rate of thirty-two dollars per kalendar month, and the rations allowed by congress.

That doctor Charles Frederick Wiefenthal be and is hereby appointed surgeon general to the quota of troops raised by this state.

That doctor Michael Wallace be and is hereby appointed surgeon to the first regiment.

That doctor John Hanson Briscoe be and is hereby appointed surgeon to the second regiment.

That doctor William Augustus Dashiell be and is hereby appointed surgeon to the third regiment.

That doctor Frederick Ridgely be and is hereby appointed surgeon to the fourth regiment.

That doctor John Hindman be and is hereby appointed surgeon to the fifth regiment.

That doctor Noah Hart be and is hereby appointed surgeon to the sixth regiment.

That
