W E D N E S D A Y, April 2, 1777.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday, except Mr. Parran. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr. Bowie appeared in the house.

The bill, entitled, An act to expedite the march of troops in and thro' this state, was read the second time, and will pass with the following amendments:

In the last line of the fourth page, instead of the word "eighty" insert the word "sixty."

In the thirteenth line of the sixth page, the same amendment.

In the fourth line from the bottom of the eighth page, between the word "person" and the word "and" insert "which oath may be administered by such commanding officer." So endorsed, and sent to the senate by Mr. Brice and Mr. Bowie. They return and acquaint Mr. Speaker they delivered the bill.

The house having prepared a list of collectors of blankets, the same was read and approved. Sent to the senate by Mr. O. Sprigg and Mr. Deye, and is as follows:

A LIST of persons to be appointed collectors of blankets, agreeable to the act to promote the recruiting service, proposed to the senate for their concurrence.
