The house met.

Mr. Sheredine brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the recovery of fines on non-enrollers, which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.
Also the following report from the committee of elections and privileges:

By the COMMITTEE of ELECTIONS and PRIVILEGES, June 18, 1777.

YOUR committee beg leave to report, That by the return of Messieurs Thomas Hayward and Thomas Bruff, two of the judges appointed to hold an election of a delegate for Somerset county, to serve in the room of Mr. John Stewart, who was ineligible at the time of his election by being a field officer, it appears that William Winder, Esq; was duly elected. That by the return of Thomas Schley, one of the judges appointed to hold an election of a delegate for Frederick county, to serve in the room of Mr. John Hanson, resigned, it appears that David Schriever, Esq; was elected. Which is submitted to the consideration of the honourable house.

By order of the com.

EDWARD FOX, clk.

A memorial of John Odell Hart, was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Turbutt Wright, Esq; from the senate, delivers to Mr. Speaker a letter from his excellency the governor of this day, thus endorsed; "By the senate, June 19, 1777: Referred to the consideration of the house of delegates."

"By order,

DAN. of St. THO. JENIFER, P."

Which was read here and ordered to lie on the table.

On reading a second time the representation of the magistrates of Frederick county, and the petition of George French, late sheriff of said county, ORDERED, That a committee be appointed to examine into the truth of the facts therein set forth; and Mr. T. Bond, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Galloway, Mr. Sheredine, Mr. Burgess, and Mr. Wootton, are appointed a committee for that purpose.

Proposals from Caleb Burgess and Isaac Harris, for erecting a salt work on some part of Chesapeake bay, were read and ordered to lie on the table.

The house adjourns till to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.
